Foreword . . .

"There is no easy way to the stars from the earth." Each must seek his own way, probing into dark paths unknown to himself, to return with the light of knowledge. The way is tedious and long; each person's path is strewn with obstacles, but the rewards found in the light of knowledge are eternal. To each the record of his journey is sacred; to each the memory of obstacles surpassed or overcome is as dear as light is to the blind.

Recorded here, among the stars, is the eternal record of your events, written and portrayed as they were acted. The cause for action remains your secret; your character evidenced while acting remains unrecorded. Only the fact that you have sought and remained undaunted looking to the stars for guidance, counsel, and success, is printed on these pages of time.

May this written memory serve as a period of sweet reminiscence and enjoyment; may you continue to face upward to the stars that guide, beckon, and draw you to greater heights.

Dedication . . .

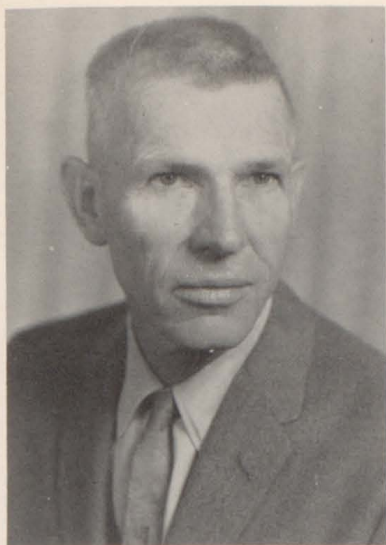

For your devotion to the students of Winslow High School and your tireless efforts on their behalf, we gratefully dedicate this, our 1962 METEOR to you.

MR. EVERETT J. PATTERSON

EDITH ADKINS

It's true indeed she's very small, but only weeds grow very tall.

LESLIE ALLEN

Every man is as heaven made him, sometimes a little worse.

HAROLD ARMSTRONG

I'm blind in one eye and can't see out of the other.

MICKEY ARRINGTON

A friend indeed is a friend in town.

ELTA ATTAKAI

Everything to do but work.

SYLVIA ATTAKAI

Why should the devil have all the fun?

BESSIE BALDWIN

Most honest injun' this side
o' the Colorado.

PAT BAXTER

It's easy to be brave, at a safe distance.

STEVE BECKWITH

Men of few words are the best kind.

JUNIOR BEGAY

And they admired Samson's hair!

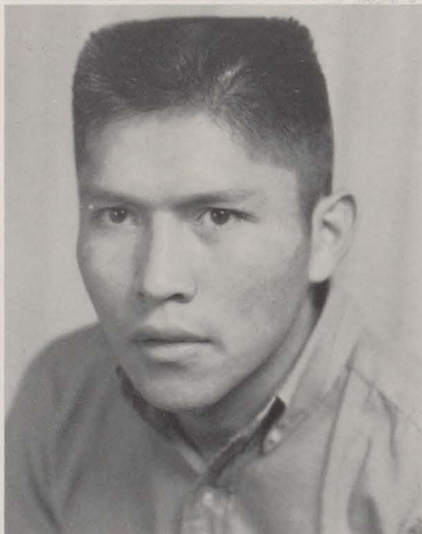

ELIZABETH BENNETT

It takes all sorts to make a world.

NATHAN BLY

Big or small, short or tall, he sets his snare to catch them all.

WILBUR BRADY

I like school . . . but I like vacations better.

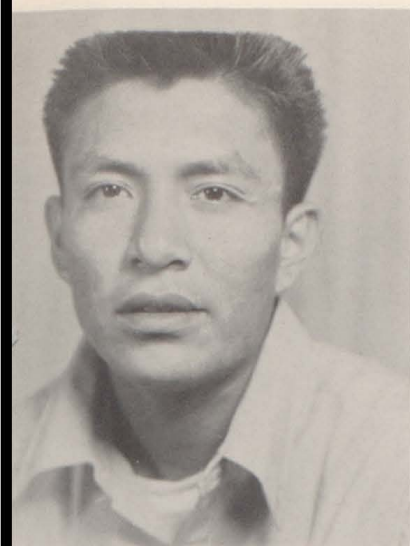

BETTY JO BROWN

This year's Bulldog hoopsters had a very on-and-off season, winning 7 games and losing 10. With the exception of Chandler and Snowflake, the 'Dogs defeated each conference opponent at least once during the season, and were outscored by their opponents by only a slim 28-point margin, 1,031 points to 1,003. Winslow won the consolation championship of their own annual Holiday Tournament, losing to eventual champion St. Johns 45-43, and then defeating Holbrook 62-60.

The Bulldog's 5 and 7 conference record left them just short of qualifying for the District. However, they finished in a blaze of glory, with lopsided wins over their last two opponents, Cortez and Mingus.

Here is your METEOR. Recorded here, among the stars, is the lasting memory of events enacted by you from September of 1961 through May of 1962.

I would like to give special recognition and thanks to those whose help has been essential in the production of this book.

First, I would like to thank our instructor and supervisor, Mr. Harvey L. Moody, whose patience, understanding and untiring efforts have never failed the Annual Staff.

Kenneth Shelly and Bill Schibi, our photographers, deserve special thanks for their long hours of work in both the taking and the printing of pictures.

Mr. Harry Summers and his assistant, Mrs. Francis Herrera, of Winslow Photo Supply have devoted long hours to help the METEOR staff.

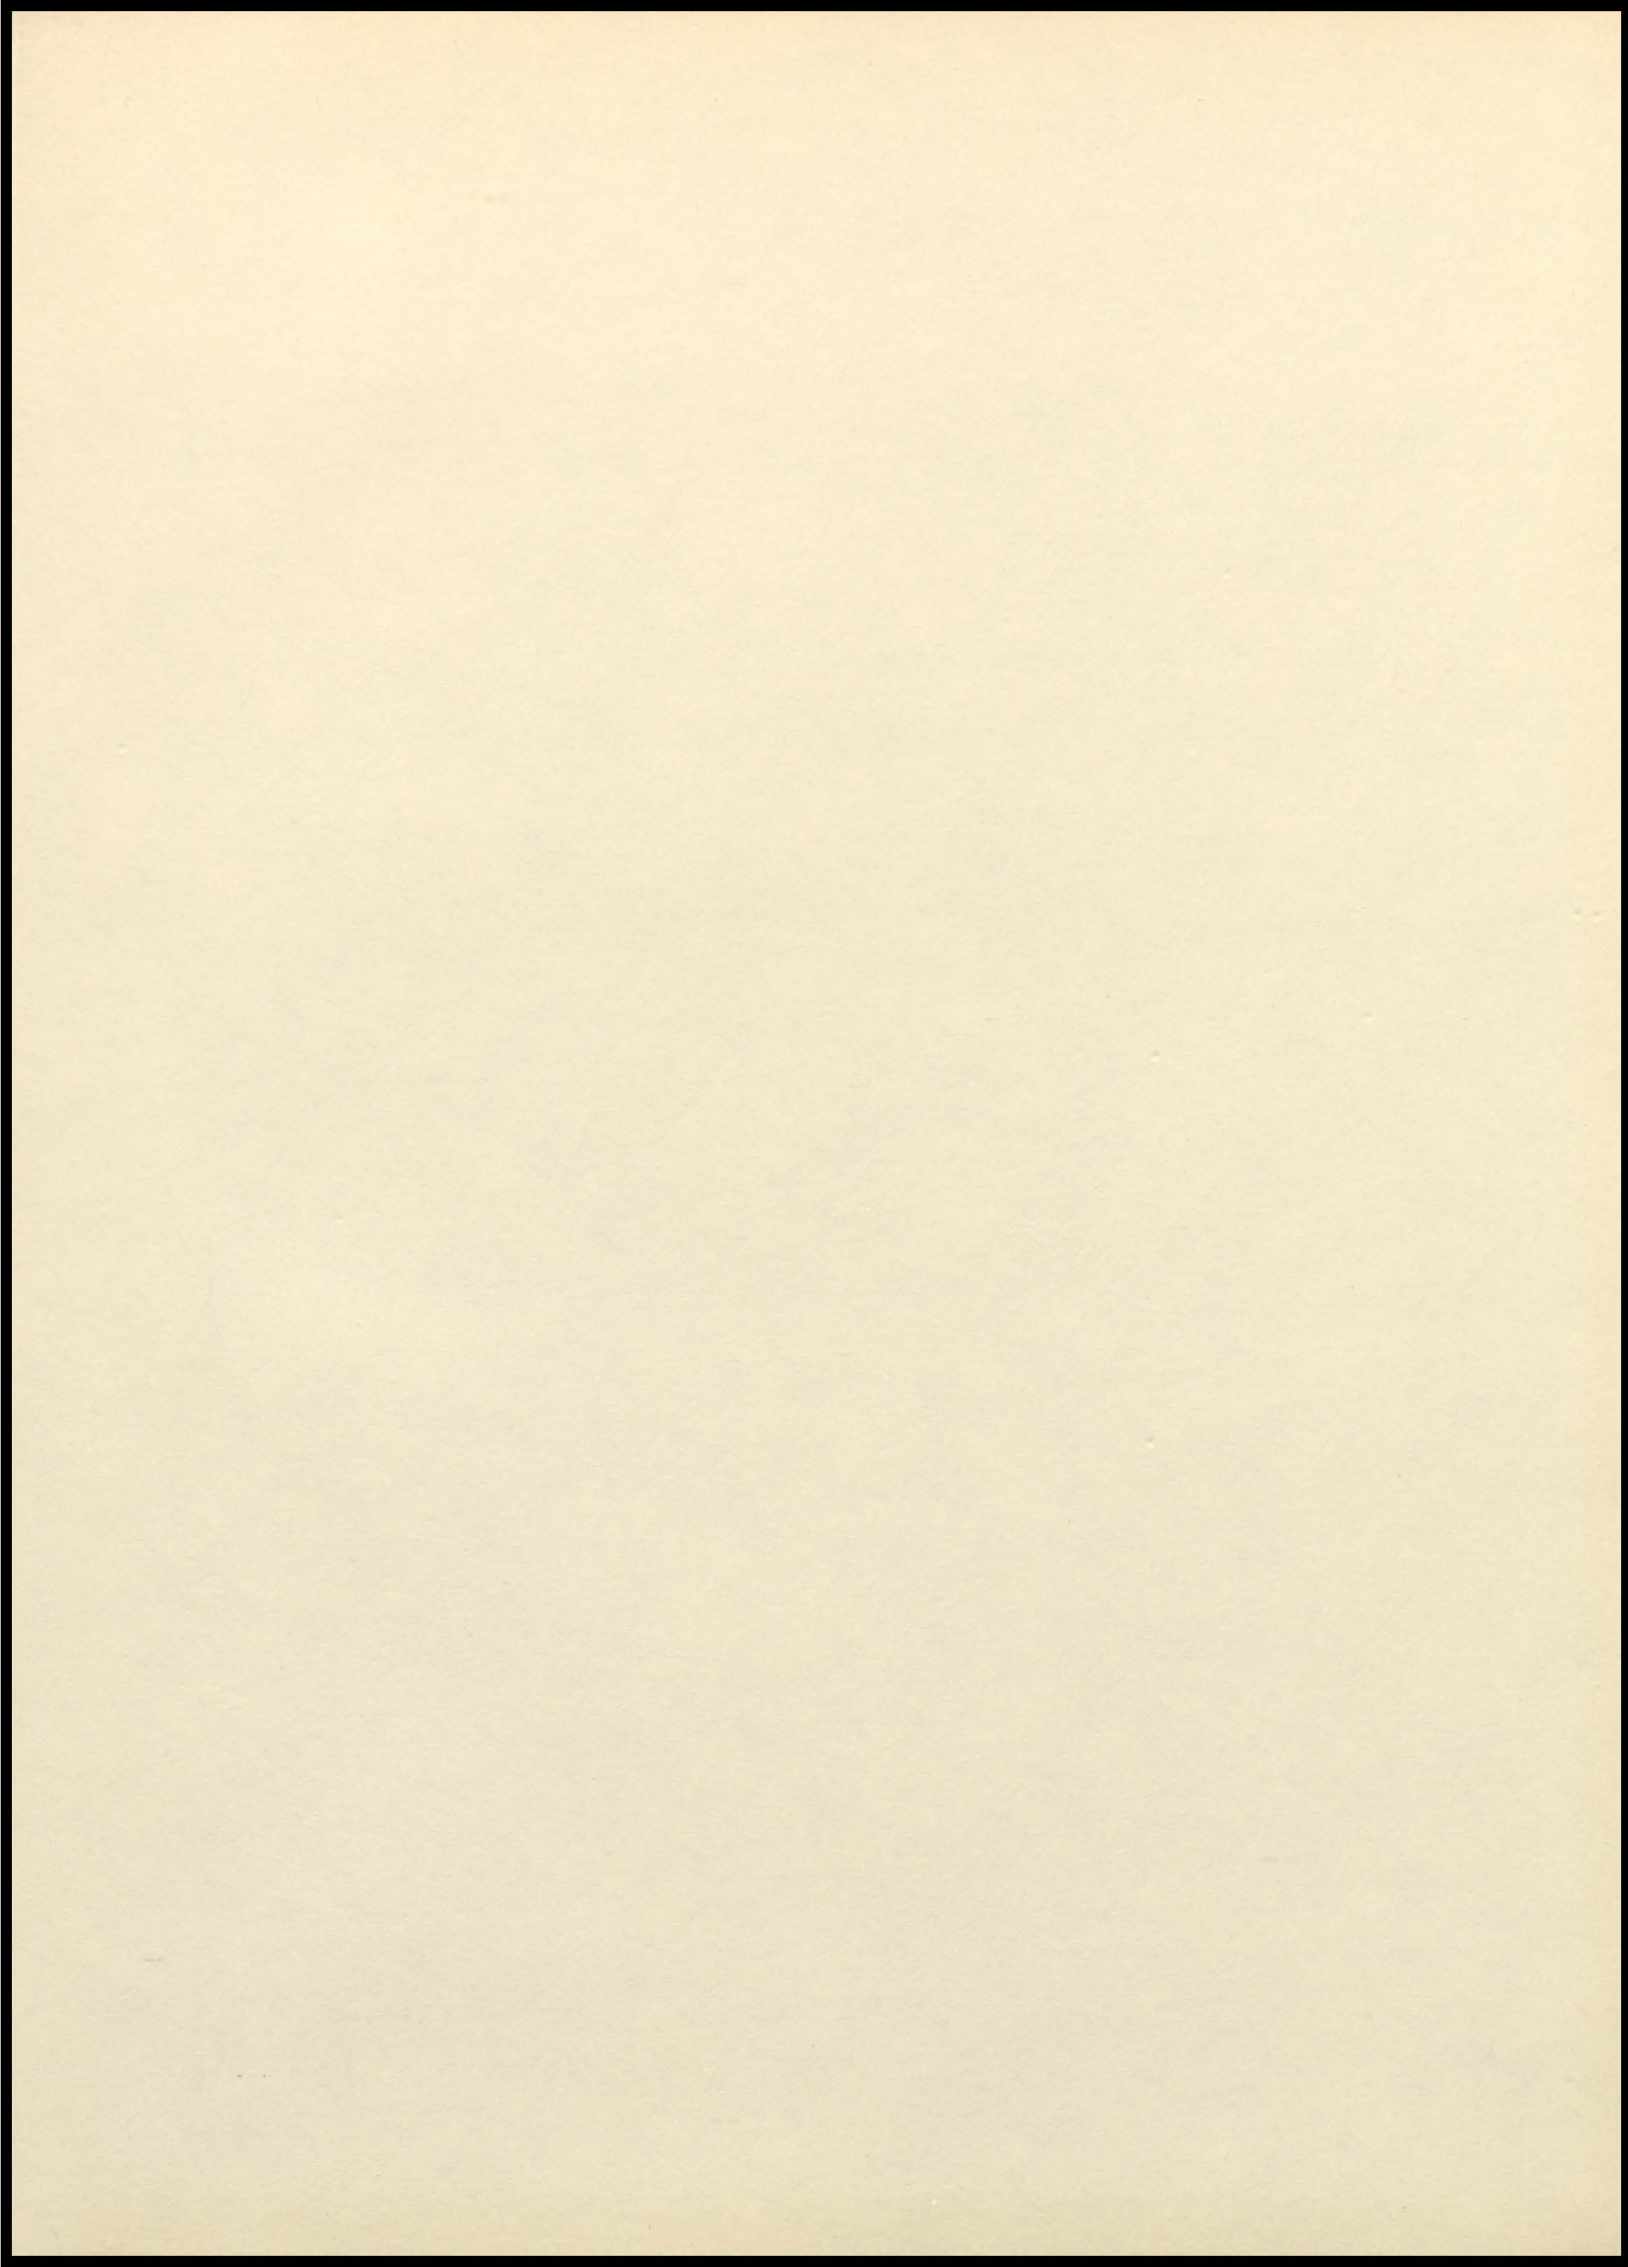

To my staff, and especially to my assistant editor, Mike Hawkins, I say thank you. Your co-operation and hard work has been appreciated.

Now, as the stars of another year fade, we, your METEOR Staff, sincerely hope that this book will serve you as a record of happy memories. We hope you will enjoy this book as we have enjoyed editing it for you.
